WHO ARE WE?

Central American Bank for Economic Integration (CABEI) is an international multilateral development financial institution. Its resources are continuously invested in projects with a development impact to reduce poverty and inequality, strengthen regional integration and the competitive insertion of its members in the global economy, with special attention to environmental sustainability.

It is headquartered in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, and has representative offices in Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Dominican Republic, Republic of China (Taiwan), Spain and Republic of Korea.

MISSION

Promote economic integration and balanced economic and social development of the Central American region, which includes the founding countries and non-founding regional countries, attending to and aligning itself with the interests of all partners.

VISION

To become the sustainable development and economic integration reference of the region, and to effectively impact in the well-being of the society.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE

To support government actions in partner countries by financing high impact regional integration projects at the lowest possible financial cost, which requires the effort and commitment to maintain and even, if possible, raise the institution's credit rating.

STRATEGIC AXES

To facilitate and manage the 2020 - 2024 institutional strategy, the Bank has defined five strategic axes to guide interventions with greater focus and contribute to:

FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS AND MODALITIES
