

WHO ARE WE?

Central American Bank for Economic Integration (CABEI) is an international multilateral development financial institution. Its resources are continuously invested in projects with a development impact to reduce poverty and inequality, strengthen regional integration and the competitive insertion of its members in the global economy, with special attention to environmental sustainability.

It is headquartered in Tegucigalpa, Honduras, and has regional offices in Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, and the Dominican Republic.

MISSION

Promote economic integration and balanced economic and social development of the Central American region, which includes the founding countries and non-founding regional countries, attending to and aligning itself with the interests of all partners.

VISION

To become the sustainable development and economic integration reference of the region, and to effectively impact in the well-being of the society.

STRATEGIC OBJECTIVE

To support government actions in partner countries by financing high-impact regional integration projects at the lowest possible financial cost, which requires the effort and commitment to maintain and even, if possible, raise the institution's credit rating.

MEMBER COUNTRIES

The Bank's members are founding countries, non-founding regional countries and extra-regional countries.

STRATEGIC AXES

To facilitate and manage the 2020 - 2024 institutional strategy, the Bank has defined five strategic axes to guide interventions with greater focus and contribute to:

Environmental and social sustainability through the approval of programs and projects that favor social ownership and address the need to preserve the environment.

Regional integration through regional initiatives in specific sectors, financing, and the promotion of the region as an integrated market.

Sustainable competitiveness which seeks to intervene in strengthening the economic, social, and institutional factors that determine regional competitiveness.

Human development and social inclusion which generates social capabilities that lead to achieving the objective of improving the Central American region's well-being and quality of life.

Gender equality through programs and projects that promote equal opportunities and economic and social conditions in the population.
